

Sioux Chief Manufacturing Continues Its Support of American Motorsports, With Sponsorship of ARCA (Automobile Racing Club of America) Series Race in Indiana

Kansas City, Missouri, July 21, 2016 – Sioux Chief Manufacturing Inc. will again be the title sponsor of this year's ARCA Series race at Lucas Oil Speedway in Brownsburg, Indiana. The "Sioux Chief PowerPEX® 200" is scheduled for Friday, July 22 at 9PM Eastern Time. The race, airing on FS1 (FOX SPORTS ONE) will be part of a huge weekend of auto racing in the Indianapolis area with a lineup that includes USAC, ARCA and NASCAR.

Sioux Chief is excited to once again be a part of the ARCA Racing Series. Getting involved in motorsports is a natural fit. Since its beginnings in 1957, Sioux Chief has been a family owned American manufacturing company. Sioux Chief is about family, community, quality, history, and innovation. Dedication to these things has driven Sioux Chief to be a leader in the rough plumbing industry.

It takes hard work and determination to keep Sioux Chief running and those factors also drive performance at the race track. It takes loyal folks who stand behind Sioux Chief by demanding and using their products. This same loyalty is in the race fans that continue to support American motorsports. Sioux Chief is proud to support racing and recognizes this value to our customers and those who use Sioux Chief's top-notch products.

Supporting motorsports presents a unique opportunity for Sioux Chief to promote their brand and the American made products they manufacture. Sioux Chief is America's plumbing manufacturer. With the "Sioux Chief PowerPEX® 200" Sioux Chief is representing its PowerPEX® brand of PEX fitting systems. PEX is one of the most flexible and easy to use plumbing and radiant heating systems on the market today, and can be used for hot and cold water applications. PEX tubing is flexible, light weight and can withstand operating temperatures up to 200°F (93°C).
